

موسسه عالی آموزش و پژوهش مدیریت و برنامه ریزی

The role of the education system in the labor market skill mismatch in Iran

Dr. Mohammad Vesal

Abstrac:

The proposed paper surveys the process of human capital accumulation in Iran, focusing on the supply side of the market for skill formation, especially the role of formal schooling. It describes the institutions and policies that shape the incentives of families and students in deciding in what types of skills to invest and how much.